

Neutra : The Quintessential California Modernist

By Barbara Lamprecht,

Taschen, 2004. Soft cover. Condition: New. No Jacket. 1st Edition. Signed by photographer Julius Shulman and Richard Neutra's son, architect and partner Dion Neutra to the title page. "The Viennese-born & raised architect settled in California early in his career, influencing post-WWII architecture with his cool, sleek modern style." Glossy pages, high quality soft cover filled with the crisp, clean photos from the archives of Julius Shulman. Richard Neutra and Julius Shulman had worked together from the 1930's until Neutra's death in 1970. At the death of his father, Dion took over as President of The Neutra Company and is one of the last true members of the Modern Architecture movement, and like his father Richard, his themes typically enhance and illustrate the beauty of water.
