Excerpt from Some Brief Remarks Upon Sundry Important Subjects: Necessary to Be Understood and Attended to by All Professing the Christian Religion, Principally Addressed to the People Called Quakers The objection which hath sometimes discouraged me in my way, may also occur to some readers; viz. That the subjects treated of in this small tract have been divers times heretofore judiciously wrote upon by different authors. This is no more than may be said of most other religious subjects as well as these. Divine Wisdom and Goodness hath seen meet to revive the same truths, by different instruments, from generation to generation. The Lord's servants speaking the same thing, as with one mouth. Herein God's gracious condescension to human frailty is very conspicuous and wonderful, by causing those excellent truths, so essential to be received that man's soul may be saved, to be frequently revived and inculcated, seeing he is so liable to forget God, and his reasonable duty to him.
