Date :2011-6-1. The new standard English on the amount of reading students from different grades were put forward different requirements. generally, is that apart from teaching, the seventh grade reading amount to be accumulated more than 40.000 words; 100.000 words over the eighth grade: ninth grade. more than 150.000 words; first-year high above 200.000 words; sophomore year more than 300.000 words; and grade three you need to read more than 360.000 words. Thus, just by reading the content of textbooks is not enough, we must read a lot of extra material to achieve the new standard English requirements. In the exam, reading comprehension questions scores account for a large proportion of the total score of about 25% to 30%, and shows the importance of reading comprehension questions. To this end, we organized all over the country line special, writing team composed of senior teachers, after several research and extensive feasibility studies, well-designed, carefully prepared selection of the series, so that the series has the following unique characteristics: First, the fine structure Books by the REVIEW bilingual English title attribute table for fine authentic essay questions the effect the core notes Keynote detailed analysis of several parts.
