In the time being we must not lose sight of the vital points which will insure the training of workmen upon a basis to which no fair objection can be made. To this end the chief of the division of trade schools will for the present be glad to confer with interested parties and consider individual cases. All correspondence will be welcomed by Mr. Dean. It is the very earnest desire of the Education Department to meet a serious and widespread public need, and to do it safely and efficiently. It must be done upon a plan which will be reasonably free from abuse, and which will establish mutually helpful relations between the educational and industrial activities of the State. And we may as well all remember that we are breaking out new roads which seem imperative to the public need, and...
