Spiritual Evolution Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Soul of Nature reveals the compatibility between science and faith. The universe is viewed as a continuum of matter and energy in which all living creatures and especially human beings are wholly integrated. Faith is an expression of the need to experience this sense of belonging. Science is approaching the realization of a living universe. Individual human beings need to be more inwardly harmonious, than most of us are, to experience this connectedness with the whole of existence. The evolution debate is used as the issue revealing our harsh divisions, and points our way toward a possible reconciliation, which requires our own evolution in the direction of inner harmony.
