THE RHODODENDRON, 1923, VOL. 2 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Rhododendron, 1923, Vol. 2 Captain Lovill has had a long and eventful career. As a boy playing marbles when a student at Siloam Academy, Surry County; as a cowboy on a Texas frontier; as a farmer, tilling the soil in the valleys of Missouri; as a brave soldier and Captain in the Civil War, contending for human rights, dealing with human life - the last to surrender at Appomattox; as a husband and father; as a merchant behind the counter; as a lawyer, pleading at the bar; as a Collector of Internal Revenues. Working for the Government; as a Commissioner, appointed by the President of the United States, to investigate Indian Titles in the far away State of Minnesota; as a candidate for Congress, defending democracy against an able opponent; as a member of the Legislature. Demanding that the railroads should pay a greater revenue to the Commonwealth: and later. As a State Senator, protecting the railroads from unjust legislation; as President of the Board of Trustees of this Institution from its beginning, he has done his duty as he saw it. Bravelv and boldly, without fear and without favor. To me it is an inspiration to see him giving the last years of his long, useful life to the cause of education. He has dedicated his time. His energies. And his talents to the building of this school, to the end that useful knowledge may be disseminated - that better opportunities may be put in the pathway of every youth in this mountain land. His life is a benediction to us all. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books....
