By April Higuera

April Higuera. Paperback. Condition: New. 254 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. THIS BOOK IS A MUST READ FOR EVERYONE! Every day innocent citizens are accused of crimes they did not commit . . . some fall further through the cracks of justice into the dark crevasse of wrongful convictions and incarcerations . . . how can this happen? Know how to protect yourself. Higuera explains the pitfalls of the criminal justice system and why defense investigation is essential in every criminal case . . . even when the client confessed! Author and Licensed Private Investigator April Higuera takes you behind the scenes of her actual investigations of multiple high-profile homicide cases for defense. Along the way, you'll join her in uncovering evidence of innocence and corruption. April lays out the evidence against the accused and her own journey through the system as she helps defend otherwise average citizens who are accused of heinous, violent crimes. Her accounts are TRUE! Read about these cases: Max Roybal: A wife's jawbone is delivered in a Tupperware container to a local TV station with a map to locate her remains. Hope Schreiner: A 73-year-old grandmother is convicted of bludgeoning her husband to death in...
