This is done by men and women, who, in the cause of science and for the benefit of suffering humanity, are willing to bear the discomforts which necessarily attend such provings. In issuing this work, the writer is guided by a desire to introduce a more judicious and rational system of domestic practice, and to put the community on their guard against the absurdities of the allopathic system of medicine as at present practised. The very fact of prescribing for a disease by its name, instead of by the symptoms it develops, is an absurdity, and an allopath without a diagnosis of the disease before him - that is, a name for it - is as helplessly a boat as a ship in a gale of wind without compass or rudder. This is abundantly proved by the utterances of the champions of the old school. Such is the dictum of Dr. O. W. Holmes, that if all the medicines in the world were thrown into the sea, it would be infinitely better for mankind and worse for the fishes. Another prominent allopathic physician made a reply, when asked what the science of medicine consisted of, in the following terse sentence The science of medicine consists in putting a remedy of which we know nothing, into a body of which we know.
