Marianna Albert, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It all started when Jay made a decision to move on from Charlie, his high school sweetheart. All he wanted was to concentrate on law school, and his future away from his childhood. Everything was going smoothly until his father cut him off and made him pay for his own law school. Jay's life started going downhill rather quickly when Mary, Charlie's mother came into his life with a ridiculous proposition. Since, the out of control proposition he developed an alcohol problem and started to depend on his pills for a mental illness that was once controlled. There are many things you never knew about Jay. In this fast paced, keep you on the edge of your seat novella everything will come out.
