For her entire life, Cecilia Pino has been raised around the mysterious world of Santeria. As the granddaughter of the most recognized Santera, in Havana, Cuba, it is no wonder that spirits are always going out of their way to communicate with her although she considers it less of a blessing and more of a curse. Sky, is known for her naturally free-spirited and mischievous personality, but her home situation has left her broken. Her mother Lucia is controlling, taking out her frustrations on her through violent beatings well into her adolescence. But now, Lucia is married to a police officer named Andre, and the abuse stops. Still, Sky is haunted by the events of her earlier childhood, and as a teenager realizes she is harboring an undeniable feeling of resentment toward both her mother and new stepfather. In order to cope, she spends time wandering some of the rougher neighborhoods of Boston against the advice of Andre, and in doing so, finds trouble. She makes a close-knit group of friends, and even comes across some who share the same traditions she has. After discovering the gift of dreams and becoming a 911 operator, Sky is finally in a place where she can say things are turning around. But a family scandal suddenly threatens to shatter the very foundation that took years to build, and a disappearance leaves her abandoned and hurt. Alone, she finds herself without any real sense of direction until she gets wind of some information that just might lead her where she needs to go....
