The Sabbath services have been held in the usual order, and prayers every evening at 6 o'clock. The two services of song, Wednesday and Friday evenings, afford variety, and we trust will be productive of much good, as through the medium of music the women are imbibing truths which will sink deep into their lives. Mr. Sankey once said: I am profoundly sure that among the divinely ordained instrumentalities for the conversion and sanctification of the soul, God has not given a greater, besides the preaching of the gospel, than the singing of psalms and hymns and spiritual songs. I have known a hymn to do God's work in a soul, when every other instrumentality failed. So, if through the singing of our new Alexander's Gospel Hymns and others, any aching, despairing ones find comfort in the promises which reach their hearts through these hymns, but have never been otherwise touched, we shall feel that these services of song have been attended with good results. The day school, intended especially for illiterates, has enrolled 93 women, most of whom were of foreign birth, and many of them being unable to speak English. Only 8 of the foreigners could read and write in their own language. The zeal with which the women apply themselves has been very commendable, and there have been many instances of gratifying progress. As I suggested in my report last year, a variety of reading books would aid us...
