2018. Hardcover. Condition: New. 204 ABOUT THE BOOK:- This book in two volumes is a developmental discourse for 'mountain perspective development'. The book unfolds the journey of the Himalayan state of Uttarakhand since its inception and covers the journey of fifteen years and beyond. Twenty different dimensions with exhaustive time series and cross section data, critical analysis and policy asks by experts give a special place to this book for 'Himalayan model of development'. The volumes will act as ready references for policymakers, bureaucrats, scientists, academicians, researchers and students not only for the state but also for all the Himalayan states of the country and abroad. The common characteristics and challenges of Himalayan region and the distinction from plain region as often cited by the authors create a strong platform for a focused dialogue towards separate policy of development for 'The Himalayan States of India' and sets 'An Agenda of Sustainable Development for the Himalayan states ' through the course of action for Uttarakhand . ABOUT THE AUTHOR:- Prof R.R. Nautiyal has retired as a Professor from the Department of Economics, HNB Garhwal Central University on July 2017. He has served the University for more than 40 years in various capacities. He has been the head and convener of Department of Economics of HNB Garhwal Central University. He is Masters in Economics and a Masters in Education with DPhil degree. He has published significant research papers in national and international journals and has been member of various boards and academic committees throughout the country. He has supervised a number of PhD scholars and specializes in banking, finance and regional development. He has authored a number of books. He has been the co editor of a significant book titled 'Uttarakhand in turmoil' along with Prof Annpurna Nautiyal. He has been invited...
