SOUNDJATA, LE LION: LE JOUR O LA PAROLE FUT LIBRE: SUNJATA, THE LION: THE DAY WHEN THE SPOKEN WORD WAS SET FREE

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 130 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. African Drama Play Bilingual: English-French Sunjata, The Lion: The Day When The Spoken Word Was Set Free Soundjata, Le Lion: Le Jour O La Parole Fut Libre Through spoken words, music, call and response, jest, rhythmic utterance and declamation, the play vividly recreates the historical and epic journey of Sunjata, the genuine Lion King, unifier and founder of the 13th century Mali Empire. The legendary figure of Sunjata, the one who gave an official role to jali or the griot, the wordsmith and musical artist; also the one who, according to the tradition, with the help of the brotherhood of the master-hunters, at the beginning of his reign proclaimed in the Mandn Charter that: The essence of slavery is extinct this day, from one wall to another, from one Mandn border to another, that legendary figure remains permanent and well alive throughout West African griots accounts. To this day, the Sunjata Epic, as one of the greatest epic traditions of Africa, is still sung by Mandingo modern griots on the world performing stage. Here in this piece where spoken word and music, history and epic, legend and magical ritual are intrinsically interwoven, the iconic figure of Sunjata comes alive, accompanied by griots and griottes (masters and mistresses of spoken words and music), still emerging from a living and enduring culture thousands of years old, and still conveying a powerful and timeless significance in our modern era. Beyond the play, the eight hundred years old Sunjata Epic is still a social and cultural reality, a living performance told every seven years, on the sacred ground of Kangaba (Mali) the heartland of the old Mali Empire. ----- travers paroles, musique, agent rythmique, rpondeur, geste, profration, et dclamation, cette pice, de manire vivante, recree...
