Julia Winthrop, a young journalist, thinks she has finally made it big when she has the opportunity to go out of town on a big assignment. On her way to her big gig, she meets Derrick Landry, a young racing phenom, who comes to her rescue. The two have instant chemistry, but will their fast passion and steamy romance have them crashing before they even have a chance? Excerpt: She stood there watching as he pulled open the hinged compartment and stared down at the top, the muscles of his tanned biceps flexing. She thought about those arms wrapped around her waist and his sensual lips kissing her. A strange pang of wanting him washed over her as she fantasized about what it would be like to have sex with a perfect stranger.
