Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Observations on Heresy and Orthodoxy I had not yet at that time settled, to my entire satisfaction, the important point which forms the subject of the following Letters. I had long been convinced, that most of the questions which so hopelessly divide the church of Christ, are not essential to Christianity. I knew that the distinction between essential and non-essential articles of faith must be arbitrary, since there is no certain rule to distinguish them. But I had not fully made the application of that fact - the absence of a rule not subject to rational doubt - nor found, as I did soon after, that the absence of every rule of dogmatic faith is in perfect conformity with the tenour and spirit of the New Testament. As I had not yet obtained this conviction, and was not in doubt about my duty to God, I could not but feel distressed, when, still under a remnant of those early impressions of identity between saving faith and right opinions, I found my Orthodoxy crumbling to dust, day by day. I may add, with perfect truth, that my distress was, increased by my real attachment to the Church of England, from which I feared I should find it necessary to separate myself. Nor is it difficult to explain the source of that attachment. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
