Excerpt: .credit is provided by the Owen Bill now before Congress. This bill authorizes the establishment of a great Foreign Finance Corporation to supply Europe with credit for raw materials. The money is to be raised by the sale of bonds in the United States. One-fourth of these bonds are to be held by the government, one-fourth by the banks, and one-half by the people of America. That is where you and I come in. By buying these bonds we can help Europe and at the same time find a safe investment to take the place of our paid-up Liberty Bonds.
