Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Sigma Chi Quarterly: The Official Organ of the Sigma Chi Fraternity, November, 1892 Apropos of the election of Mr. Reginald Fendall to the presidency of the Sigma Chi fraternity, which election was consummated at the Indianapolis convention, August 26th ultimo, it seems proper to reproduce the graceful and felicitous remarks of the Sigma Chi Quarterly (the organ of the association) with reference to Mr. Fendall made, though in an entirely different connection, in its July number of 1890: Mr. Fendall was born in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of March, 1845. He was the sixth son of the late Philip R. Fendall, LL. D., a distinguished lawyer of that city, and a typical gentleman of the old school, one whom native Washingtonians delight to remember as an example of a type famous for its courtesy of manner and dignity of carriage, combined with the utmost simplicity of character and purity of life. The early school days of Mr. Fendall were passed at the academy of Professor O. C. Wight,...
