Two Dollar Radio, Canada, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Compelling and horrifying. the uneasy melding of the actual and the imagined gives the book its own peculiar rhythm. Chicago Tribune Square Wave is an experimental paean to process, to our oscillations between extremes, to the revolutions that come and go and the worlds they leave behind in the ping-ponging between the poles that lie at the hinterlands of human experience. Los Angeles Times I don t know of anything like [Square Wave]. [Mark de Silva is] doing something that I think few people have dared to do. It was thrilling. I think it s really an interesting book and I ll be reading it again and again. Michael Silverblatt, KCRW Bookworm Beautifully written. de Silva s novel is refreshing in its belief that disparate ideas can, in some sense, be united, that experimental music has something to say to experimental meteorology. De Silva s ambition in creating a work that aspires to the heights of the visionary is commendable in itself. History, violence, music, science, human interaction Square Wave treats these not just as facts to be reported, but as dots to be connected. Slant Magazine A novel that looks our technocratic, militarized present in the face, Square Wave tells the story of a night watchman who discovers weaponized weather modification technologies. It sounds crazy, but in de Silva s hands it all makes perfect (and terrifying) sense. Flavorwire Part mystery, part sci-fi thriller. highly topical for Americans today. The Millions Mark de Silva s truly accomplished Square Wave defies all categories. Provocative, fascinating, and edifying, Square Wave is a fiercely intelligent and thrillingly inventive novel. Dana Spiotta A brilliant debut, ambitious with its ideas, extraordinary in their syntheses and execution, and its stylish prose lit..
