Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A Triple murder in a quiet Essex village. Three of the County s most feared criminals are dead, it is December 1995. Six weeks earlier, an innocent girl dead by misadventure and a cruel turn of fate. These facts are undisputed, written in stone and intrinsically linked. As is the conviction of two innocent men. Once Upon a Time in Essex: An interesting and fast paced thriller, delivering an alternative explanation, with a plausible how and why. It answers difficult questions and deals with the facts as proven. The author does not seek to discredit any previous accounts or versions of events leading up to the gruesome murders, he merely offers an interesting alternative scenario to be considered. Which, given the nature of so many unexplained facts and events surrounding major crime, both then and now, the book may offer some explanation as to why so many of Britain s major crime bosses are plagued by an unexplainable occurrence of bad luck, and at such inconvenient times in their careers. And why there is no Good Life for them in retirement. Make your own minds up, but be careful who you tell, or rather how you tell!!! Naturally I have made some elements of the timeline and story fit my purpose, so please don t quibble on minor issues. There have been many versions of who, why and how, regarding events which took place on the night of the 6th December 1995 in Rettendon, Essex. The death of three men is all that is certain. They were notorious, violent and professional criminals. And they died on a lonely and deserted farmer s track. In the middle of nowhere, unarmed. These are...
