Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For my part I don t care so very much for these ere town-hill aristocracy, said Tim Hawkins. They live here in their gret houses and are so proud they think it s a favor to speak to a farmer in his blue linsey shirt a drivin his team. I don t want none on em lookin down on me. I am as good as they be; and I guess you make as much in your trade by the farmers out on the hills as you do by the rich folks here in town. . Harriet Elisabeth Beecher Stowe (June 14, 1811 - July 1, 1896) was an American abolitionist and author. She came from the Beecher family, a famous religious family, and is best known for her novel Uncle Tom s Cabin (1852), which depicts the harsh conditions for enslaved African Americans. The book reached millions as a novel and play, and became influential in the United States and Great Britain, energizing anti-slavery forces in the American North, while provoking widespread anger in the South. Stowe wrote 30 books,...
