

Nistir 7898: Building the Materials Innovation Infrastructure: Data and Standards (Paperback)

By U S Department of Commerce

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Materials Genome Initiative (MGI) is a multi-agency multi-stakeholder effort to develop the infrastructure needed to enable the materials science community to design, develop, manufacture, and deploy advanced materials at least twice as fast as possible today, at a fraction of the cost. This new Materials Innovation Infrastructure (MII) will leverage advances in materials modeling, computing, and communications to accelerate advanced materials design and deployment in the United States across many fields. More widespread implementation of advanced materials will contribute to new products with enhanced functionality, and potentially enhance U.S. global competitiveness.
