McK Consulting, Incorporated. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 284 pages. Journey back to a time to the Muskoka of small family cottages through the stories of what it was like to spend your vacations at a family cottage on Mary Lake near Huntsville and other places in the Muskokas. Beginning with the family renting a cottage in the 30s through the purchase of land and then building the cottage in the 50s, the Cowans, Meusers and Fairleys all became part of the story of the lake just as the cottage became a rich part of their life story too. These first-hand accounts reflect both a bygone era and the new world of cottaging in some of the most beautiful places on Earth. For those who remember those rustic days - you will warm to the happy memories of cottage life in the 50s and 60s and 70s. The stories continue through the development years of 80s and 90s. The tales continue up until 2004. Pull yourself up by a fire at the cottage to read this book. If you are not at the cottage, this book will take you there through these enchanting memories and stories of the people and places of Muskoka, Ontario, Canada. There is also a special section on James Alexander Cowan. He was Canadas first Public Relations Consultant, friend of Ernest Hemingway, advisor to President Franklin Roosevelt, consultant to Cyrus Eaton, writer for Macleans Magazine, Editor of the Toronto Star Weekly and more. He is also the one who built the cottage central in this story as father, grandfather and great-grandfather to the characters in this book.
