Pueblo Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 248 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.2in. x 0.6in.In 1979 liturgical theologian Don Saliers published an essay challenging both the Churchs and the theological academys understanding of the relationship between liturgy and ethics. Liturgy and the Moral Self seeks to honor Saliers by responding to his prophetic and prescriptive invitation to theological work that is framed in terms of the doublefocus of Liturgy - the glorification of God and the sanctification of humanity. Thematically grouped, this symposium engages a variety of theological disciplines in the effort to understand and enVision how liturgy, spirituality, and aesthetics entail practices that enable people to develop into active Christians worthy of the Gospel. Saliers essay and its argument guide the symposium in exploring several of its aspects from a diversity of perspectives (theological disciplines, denominations, genders, generations). Intended for pastoral ministers, as well as faculty and students of seminary and graduate programs, Liturgy and the Moral Self features Saliers provocative essay, an introductory chapter, and sections on liturgical theology, the formation of character, and word and music - each with a single-page introduction to the chapters that follow. Chapters are Liturgy and Ethics: Some New Beginnings, by Don Saliers; Christianity and Cultus, by Gordon Lathrop; Recovering Traditions: Liturgy in Society, by Bruce Morrill, S. J.; Practical Insights in the Wesleyan Theology of Sanctification, by Henry Knight, Ill, and Steven Land; Tradition and Change in Protestant Worship, by James White; Gestures of the Self, by E. Byron Anderson; Life as Prayer: Contemplation and Action, by Peter Fink, S. J.; Truthfulness and Vulnerability: Spirituality as Radically Honest Autobiography, by Roberta Bondi; The Whole of the Saints Life as Prayer, by Mary Stamps; Worship and Character in Late-Modern Society, by Staley Hauer was; Liturgical Music: The Aesthetic and Prophetic Embrace,...
