Brighton Publishing LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.There comes a time in everyone s life to make the decision to put aside a life-altering injustice. Sometimes, the outcome is to seek the ultimate in personal justice. .revenge. Young, beautiful, talented, and horribly-wronged amateur champion golfer Lisa Johanssen has made that decision. With an iron will and immutable determination, she sets out to exact revenge on the much older man who sexually abused her, leaving her physically and emotionally scarred. She is fixated not only on making her former mentor pay the ultimate price for his crimes, but she and her uncle, intent upon vengeance of his own, devise an intricate plan to embezzle several million dollars of tournament prize money. .thereby achieving deserved compensation for the despicable injustices each has incurred. In recruiting the accomplices needed to accomplish The Plan, Lisa morphs into many different and exotic characters. At once a fantastic, insatiable lover to the over-sexed lawyer, Neil, who is needed for one part of The Plan, simultaneously she forges a lesbian relationship with an equally beautiful but unhappily-employed international banking expert, Sara, who is needed to execute the complex financial aspects of The Plan. Lisa s chameleon-like transformations take their toll on her psyche, and those of her dual lovers, threatening at times to derail it all. Lisa s uncle, Ingemar, her co-conspirator in this revenge plot, often provides the balance and stability that are much needed in Lisa s often-schizophrenic obsession to make her tormentor pay for his brutal assault. He brings Lisa back from the brink of self-destruction many times, and keeps her focused on their ultimate goal. The multi-faceted and supremely engaging plot and sub-plots all take place...
