

Are You in or Are You Out? Inclusivity and Exclusivity of Table Manners. (Paperback)

By Tanya Kosh

Blurb, 2018, Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Table manners are an intrinsic part of everyday life, created and maintained throughout human historical development. This richly illustrated book offers fascinating insights into the nature of table manners and their function in human life, and presents an expert's view on dining etiquette. This is not a guide to what is in and what is not, far from it. This is research and a witty analysis, including among other things a classification of table manners and identification of the main driver for sales of etiquette courses. From the survival of humanity to politics and beyond, Tanya Kosh uses tales from her life as a newcomer to the UK and as an international business traveler, to illuminate both the origins and the necessity of various cultures table manners. So often we exercise our own cultural table manners out of habit, never considering where they come from and which human needs they satisfy, whilst Kosh puts them under the magnifying glass. Have you ever thought about your table manners being your ID? Whether you think table manners are outdated or a vital part of any...
