NOT EVERYONE IS A STAR! (PAPERBACK)

Feedaread.com, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.THE FOREWORD This is the third of Prof David Dunn-Wilson s annual Lenten books published in recent years through FeedARead. Following on from looking Over My Shoulder during his journey through Proverbs (2016) we shared in Wandering Wondering (2017) with David as we joined him in travelling through some of the B Roads of the Bible. For 2018 we are invited to attend the performance of a lifetime with David acting as our guide and as a sensitive theatre critic examining the contributions made to the biblical production by some of the less well-known performers. Many of these lesser-known performers have what might be described as walk-on roles, but others make contributions without which some of the star performers would not have come to prominence in the ways that they have. It is clear to me as a long-standing friend and enthusiast of much that David Dunn-Wilson has shared in his fruitful life and ministry that David, like the good wine, which we Methodists are not supposed to know much about, simply matures with age! What that age is, I will leave the reader to guess, but his growing readership are left in no doubt that what he shares in these Lenten books, (which can be used and appreciated at any time of the year, ) is the fruit of deep academic study as well as a rich personal experience of life in all its fullness . Please, settle down with David and enjoy the performance, which you will see is about to begin. Richard Jackson (Rev. Dr). AN INVITATION I want to invite you to join me in looking again at the greatest performance ever seen. It is nothing less than God s Drama...
