Dr. A. B. Walkom, President, in the Chair. The minutes of the preceding Annual General Meeting (26th March, 1941) were read and confirmed. Presidential Address. There is no need for me to stress the gravity of the situation in which our country finds itself to-day. Whilst the news of the past few days has been more heartening to us, the pace of modern warfare is so fast that it would be a rash man who would forecast the changes that may take place even in a very few days. We can only hope that when the tide does turn in our favour the flow will be as strong and as fast as has been the ebb. Science and the search for truth will go on undiminished in its strength and in the enthusiasm of its devotees, though for a time its objective may be diverted towards the desperate needs of the times. During its sixty-seven years of existence this Society has weathered the storms of two major financial crises and one major world war, and we are confident that after this present war it will resume its activities directed towards the advancement of the study of Natural History. The concluding part of Volume lxxvi of the Society's Proceedings was issued in December. The complete volume (439 plus xxxviii pages, fourteen plates, and 206 text-figures) contains thirty-six papers on various branches of Natural History....
