Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Brave Soldier, a True Patriot, a Noble Man, Defended Against Partisan Malice: Reply of Hon. Reverdy Johnson to the Paper Which Judge-Advocate Holt Furnished to the President, Urging General Porter s Condemnation The preparation of this Reply was delayed until a printed copy of the Record in the case of Major-General Fitz-John Porter was obtained, and since, by professional engagements, which the writer was not at liberty to set aside. It is now submitted in the confidence that the intelligent and impartial reader will coincide in opinion with the writer, that a greater injustice was never done through the forms of a judicial proceeding, than was done by the sentence of the Court-Martial in the case of that gallant officer. Baltimore, July, 1863. To vindicate a citizen unjustly assailed, is the duty of all men who properly estimate the value of individual character and its influence on the public good. The duty is the more imperative, if the services of such citizen have contributed to the honor of his country, and have been rendered with great toil and solicitude, and amidst frequent and imminent perils. To this general obligation in the instance which causes this paper, there is with the writer superinduced the special one growing out of the professional relation in which he has heretofore stood to the officer whose case forms its subject. His first personal acquaintance with Major-General Fitz-John Porter was, when he became one of his counsel on his recent trial. Before then, he knew him only, (and who did not so know him who has followed the history of our sad civil war?) as a patriotic, skillful and gallant...
