Big Moose Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A simple, inspirational book that encourages the practice of mindfulness while in nature to help you find peace, healing, and happiness. This transformational guide encourages spiritual awareness and helps the reader to open their eyes to the beauty in their surroundings. Do you desire a quiet moment in this noisy world? If you answered yes, then this motivational book based on Zen philosophy will help you to practice mindfulness and promote a sense of peace, healing, and happiness even if you have never practiced Buddhism. Regardless of your spiritual beliefs, we all need time to be quiet and clear our minds from the noise pollution of this fast-paced world in which we live. There are days when peace seems unattainable and stress rules every second of our days. The accumulation of stress has negative consequences on our physical, spiritual, and mental health. Zen in the Garden will help you to slow down and begin to see those beautiful little moments in your surrounding environment. You don't need to go off on some long journey to find your guru in a remote cave in the Andes in order to experience spirituality and enlightenment. You can find it right outside your front door in your own garden. In this inspirational little book you will discover: Motivational anecdotes that help you remember the importance of connecting with nature to encourage health and healing. Beautiful photographs from an award-winning photographer to help you lose yourself in beauty. Nature challenges to encourage you to venture out and find that sense of peace. Gardening tips to help you create your own peaceful Zen space right at your home. Quieting the mind In this fast paced world...
