Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Rolling Along is the true story of Harly, Daniel, Nate, and Dan's adventure on the TransAmerica Bike Trail. Setting off from Florence, Oregon in June of 2004, these four young cyclists set their sights on Yorktown, Virginia and the Atlantic Ocean. Facing obstacles like a broken bike frame at Lolo Pass, Montana, aggressive dogs in the lush hills of Kentucky, and the ever present danger of motorhomes and logging trucks these four friends test their resolve to see if they have what it takes to make it coast to coast. The third book in the Long-Distance Adventure Series, Rolling Along is in part Harly's journal, which includes details of nearly two months of cycling. A decade after riding through ten states and logging over four thousand miles, Harly put together this book in hopes of inspiring others to cycle America's most historical bike trail.
