

The Scarlet Cross: The Fourth Book of the Crusades

By Bradford, Karleen

Scarborough, ON, Canada: HarperCollins Publishers Canada, Limited, Scarborough, ON, Canada, 2006. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition. Book Description: Karleen Bradford's four previous young adult novels on the Crusades have sold almost 100,000 copies. Now, with The Scarlet Cross, Bradford turns the clock back to the events leading up to Angeline, her most recent Crusades bestseller. The Scarlet Cross is a gripping fictional account based on real history: the story of a young shepherd boy, Stephen of Cloyes, who, through a holy vision, was commanded to raise up a children's crusade to march from France to Jerusalem. These children hoped to accomplish what grown men had failed to do: restore Jerusalem to Christendom. With a rich historical canvas of thousands of children some as young as seven, many orphaned, others malnourished or ill on a five-month-long journey, The Scarlet Cross is an intimate first-person story of a very real boy who is full of questions about his faith and his ability to lead. Bradford's blend of adventure and insight will instantly capture the hearts and minds of adolescent readers as they grapple with their own life's journey. About the Author KARLEEN BRADFORD is the acclaimed author of 21 children's and young adult books. She has now written five books about the Crusades. Angeline is nominated...
