All she thought about was how she could make a man happy. I never understood why my mom always chose a man over her children, whom she carried for nine months. After seen all the black eyes that my mom endure by the man who she said loved her. I decided to remove any signs of being a girl, because I didn t want to suffer the same pain that my mom did. So the first thing I had to do was to stop wearing dresses, then I began trashing all of my hair bows and ribbons that I had in my possessions. The last thing I had to do was to change the way I wore my hair....
