

It Is Well: Expositions on Substitutionary Atonement (9Marks)

By Dever, Mark; Lawrence, Michael

Crossway, 2010. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Theological and devotional, expository and inspirational: these are four words that well capture this excellent work on the doctrine of penal substitution. Thank you, Mark and Michael, for this gift to the church of the Lord Jesus. Read it and be instructed. Read it and be blessed." --Daniel L. Akin, President, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary "Dever and Lawrence remind us that at the heart of Christianity is Christ, and the heart of Christ's ministry is the cross, and the heart of the cross is penal substitution. Nor is penal substitution limited to part of the canon. Both in the OT and the NT forgiveness of sins comes only through substitution. The OT anticipates the substitutionary sacrifice of Christ, the Gospels relate the story of his sacrifice, and the Epistles explicate what Christ has accomplished for his people. What a joy to have the truth of Christ's work for us set forth in sermons, for we see clearly that Christ's atoning work is no abstraction. Dever and Lawrence in these well-crafted sermons both instruct us in God's Word and apply it powerfully to the lives..."
