Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 244 x 170 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you are troubled or lost in the world, or when you find yourself at a standstill; you can find the answers you seek while reading this poetry. Hopefully this will help you understand the true meaning of what your worries are. Do not give yourself a headache because things are usually what it is. Do not think too hard on things because the answer that you seek is right in front of you. In life you might have to take a few steps back to see the big picture and that is what is portrayed in these poems. Sometimes you might find yourself going back to where the problem began and that is okay because life usually gives us the opportunity to do just that. Being lost is nothing but to find yourself is everything? But to be lost and found at the same time is a step worth taken. You will find that person that you are trying to find, the one that you felt was gone but yet near, the one that you thought that you would never see or talk to again. To the world you are nothing, to your friends and family you might be the shoulder that they need to lean on or cry on, but to you; you are everything and with that you will be able to see yourself in a whole different view. You are what you are, a person trying to belong, a person trying to be what you supposed to be, a person who just want a sense of peace and clarity. A person hidden in the world and trying to make people feel better or good about...
