

Pacific Coast Bicycle Route #5: Santa Barbara, CA - Imperial Beach, CA (249 Miles)

By Adventure Cycling Association

Adventure Cycling Association, 2011. Sheet map, folded. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Because the heavy traffic tends to be even heavier in summer, we recommend that you ride this route in the spring or autumn. May and September-October are the best months for riding. Note that during summer, strong winds prevail from north to south. In Santa Barbara and the towns surrounding it, prepare for urban riding conditions. US 101 between Santa Barbara and Ventura is closed to bicyclists, so you'll ride on city streets and county roads. The route stays close to sea level here. Traffic levels build near Ventura and Oxnard, then taper off until Los Angeles County. You'll ride on a bike path through Emma Wood State Beach north of Ventura, and join SR 1 southeast of Port Hueneme. South of the Ventura/Los Angeles County line you'll ride through Malibu on a four-and six lane freeway with wide shoulders. Traffic is heavier on weekends and during the summer. Through Los Angeles you'll be using beachside bicycle and pedestrian paths. You'll follow city streets through Palos Verdes Estates and Long Beach, then rejoin the busy Pacific Coast Highway, which has...

READ ONLINE
[3.7 MB]

Reviews

Complete guideline! Its such a excellent read. This really is for all who statte there had not been a worth studying. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Timothy Lynch

This publication is wonderful. it was actually writtern very completely and beneficial. You may like the way the writer compose this publication.

-- Prof. Aisha Mosciski PhD