Excerpt: . . . is signified the Church; by mountain is signified the Lord Himself; but by mountains, love to Him and charity towards the neighbour. According to the sense of the letter, the words would mean only, that when Jerusalem was besieged, as it was by the Romans, then they should not betake themselves thither, but to the mountains, according to what is said in Luke, When ye shall see Jerusalem encompassed by armies, then know ye that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in J udaa flee to the mountains, and let them who are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. The case, however, with regard to Jerusalem in this passage is similar to that of Jerusalem before mentioned; viz. , in the sense of the letter it is Jerusalem...
