Special Agent Sandy Banning and her team are at it once again. . . Nearly a year after almost being killed by a serial killer named Infinity Man, whos identity turned out to be one of the biggest betrayals that Sandy has ever experienced in her life, she is called back from her self-imposed hiatus; Master is back. One of the worst human traffickers that Sandy has ever had the misfortune of coming across, Master doesnt discriminate on who his victims are. Four years earlier, she and her late partner Ed had raided his compound and found a bloodbath with twelve dead women and Master no where to be found. Now a new body has been found in her jurisdiction with his trademark sign; the victims ears have been notched. Even though Sandy is having difficulties believing in her investigative abilities after the number Infinity Man pulled on her, she doesnt hesitate to place herself right back in the path of a man who has vowed to bring vengeance down on her for being responsible for his loss four years previously. When two children become his next intended profit margin, Sandy knows that she can not let this man disappear again. She will need to do everything in her power to bring him down. As her team uncovers clue after clue as to Masters identity, it becomes apparent that there are strings being pulled by the man. . . and the puppet is someone close to her once again. On top of everything, she also has to deal with being pressured into becoming a donor for her mother who is dying of cancer. Sandy hasnt had anything to do with...
