Excerpt from The Annual Statistics of Manufactures, 1902: Seventeenth Report The volume comprises two parts. Since the passage of the law requiring annual statistics of manufactures, the collection of schedules, the correspondence connected therewith, and the tabulation of the returns have been under the general direction of Mr. Frank H. Drown, formerly Second Clerk, but now First Clerk of the Bureau, to Whom my thanks are due for his careful supervision of the executive work of the Department. During this time Miss Margaret Shea has been his assistant and, upon his promotion, his former duties devolved upon her.
