The lone survivor is a young passenger named Marybeth. Self-exiled from society to block out a recent tragedy, Steven finds no escape from his fate. For Steven, the plane crash becomes the adventure of a lifetime, when his survival skills are tested to their limits, and romance takes a back seat to danger in Bear Country Castaways. Al Kosub was raised on an Alberta farm, which he left at age 16 to seek his fortune. He worked in Northern British Columbia in the logging and pipeline industries, went to university at age 32, and became a language teacher until his retirement. At age 83, he attends weekly Toastmasters meetings in Chilliwack, B. C. He has been writing for more than 20 years. I have in my portfolio about 80 short stories, 10 novellas, essays, childrens poems, 80 adult poems, one nonfiction, and two biographies. He was inspired to write this novel by his experiences flying in the backwoods over the B. C. coast, his years spent working in first aid, and by wilderness living.
