One night to set each other free. Almost dying from an undiagnosed heart condition means every second of your life is a precious gift to be guarded. Lena Pettitt was born a miracle. And her parents never let her forget it. Even if that daily reminder kept her from experiencing the one thing they were trying to protect most--her life. Gabriel Martinez's heart has been ripped out. His pride has been stomped on. Oh, and he now has an arrest record that's caused an even bigger rift between him and his DA mother. All for a love that wasn't really true. Gabe knows he could help this girl get back inside her house--but that may mean missing the next train to Boston to pick up the part he's spent eight weeks tracking down. She can wait for him at his grandmother's or. A few hours, an aluminum valve cover, and some strong coffee later, neither Gabe nor Lena can feign disappointment when they race to the station and arrive just as the last train home from Boston is pulling out. As jaded as he is, Gabe can't deny the fact that he's excited to spend the night exploring a city he knows nearly every corner of, with a girl who sees magic in the simplest things. Lena has been waiting for her tiny world to crack open her entire life....
