LOVE SPELLS: A NOVELLA (PAPERBACK)

Serealities Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Angelique grew up as a ward of the court with one parent abandoning her and the other an alcoholic, ill-equipped to raise a child. The story begins as Angelique turns eighteen and is released from the institution and the court system that have dictated everything about her life for years. She knows how to shoot a gun and like the girl with the dragon tattoo, she wants to get even with the people who put her here. For the first time in her life, she can choose where she lives. She has set up accounts on Facebook and dating sites and ten men have invited her to move in with them, even though she has never met any of them in person. Angelique is a beautiful young green-eyed redhead that men will always find attractive, and she knows what she wants. Unfortunately for her story, men will always find her attractive and she will always be looking for true love. She feels empowered by walking out the door of the institution and leaves without a job, a photo ID, a social security card, a bank account, or any idea of what the men she has flirted with online are really like. She first makes her way to the house of her childhood friend, Ashley, the fourth generation in a family of psychics where her mother casts love spells in exchange for donations and wants Ashley to join the family business. Ashley is a teenage mother with other ideas. After spending a few days with Ashley and hooking up with Ashley's neighbor, she finds the first of the men she has encountered online and moves in with him and his buddy in...
