Under Muzaffar Shah III, indeed, almost the last, and not the least beautiful, of the stone mosques had been erected; and subsequent buildings are mostly in the plainer and more massive style of the Pathans. The Marathas appeared on the scene about the beginning of the eighteenth century. They carried their plundering raids into Gujarat, and the viceroys, at this time much enfeebled by the absence of aid from either Delhi or surrounding chiefs, could not cope with these new enemies and in A. D. 1755 the Muhammadan power in Gujarat was finally extinguished, and the Marathas, though divided among themselves, took their place They burnt and plundered the property of friend and foe with almost equal energy, and spared neither mosque nor temple which it suited them to destroy. Innumerable are the architectural monuments which have thus suffered from their...
