Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cassie Lundy recounts the strange tale of her husband, Jefferson. Jeff was once a burly, hard-working man of the Pacific Northwest: he fished, he drank, he worked at a lumber mill. But one day the abusive man crosses paths with a stranger in town and suddenly Jefferson isn't so manly anymore. Because of a fallen angel's desperation to earn her way home, Jefferson Lundy's wife magically finds herself married to a cooking, cleaning, flannel-clad weep bucket. Cassie's home is shifted in unexpected directions after the man of the house loses his iron fist. Cassie Lundy is forced to face her own role in the making of her family and must learn to bury family values one piece at a time, if she wants to or not. This is the first tale in author N. Beth Bradley's supernatural Tales From the Dinner Table series. The angel Holly will return in The Angel's Share.
