Beloved Brethren: It is, as I believe, and as you all will doubtless acknowledge, a lamentable: fact, that notwithstanding all that has been said and written on infant baptism, few, very few, among us do have such clear, consistent, and satisfactory views of this subject, as to set their minds entirely at rest on it, and to enable them with meekness and readiness to give to every one, that asketh them, a scriptural reason for their peculiar faith and practice on this particular point. Of this fact I am thoroughly convinced by my own observation. In private conversations with many of you from time to time on this subject, I...
