Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States and American Commissioner Mr. Secretary and members OF the conference, ladies and gentlemen: It is a great and happy privilege to bid the delegates to this Conference a cordial welcome to the Capital of the United States of America. It is not only a satisfaction to greet you be cause we were lately participants in a common cause, in which shared sacrifices and sorrows and triumphs brought our nations more closely together, but it is gratifying to address you as the spokes men for nations whose convictions and attending actions have so much to do with the weal or woe of all mankind. It is not possible to overappraise the importance of such a confer ence. It is no unseemly boast, no disparagement of other nations which though not represented, are held in highest respect, to declare...
