The Dog Who Could Fly (Paperback)

By Meghna Verma

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Meghna Verma (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Inspired by a little dog that really does live in Paris and fuelled by a passion to create something bigger than them, this book is a collaborative effort of individuals who believe in the power of languages and reading. Jerome VG and Meghna Verma, met while pursuing a MBA at HEC, Paris. While trying to learn a third language (French in her case and Chinese in his) they both discovered that there was a lack of basic / children s books, which were bi or tri lingual. This revelation led them to create a book that told the same story in multiple languages (English, French, Spanish, German, Russian, Hindi, Japanese, Traditional Chinese, Simplified Chinese, and Mandarin Pinyin). The book is illustrated with delightful hand painted pictures to add to the magic of the tale. This book serves as both, a learning tool and a fantastical world for children and adults to get lost in. This book has been written for everyone who wants to learn. Its story illustrates that patience and dedication crown every effort and...
