OCLC Number: 53310234 Excerpt: . . . 2 porate investment, we need to reduce the tax rate on the dividends which we receive from corporate stock. Those dividends are already taxed when the corporation earns income. It is fundamentally un-fair for us to pay more taxes on that income. Another reason we need to end double taxation is to help our seniors live more independent lives. More than half of all dividend income goes to Americas seniors, many of whom rely on these checks as a steady source of retirement income. More than nine million seniors would receive an average of 991 in tax relief in 2003 if they did not have to pay income tax on those dividends. Maybe there was a day when ending double taxation would have helped a small handful of rich, privileged Americans, but with 84 million individual investors owning stock, those days are over and it is time to bring economic thinking into the 21st century. Our witnesses today will discuss the increases in corporate in-vestment, the hundreds of thousands of new jobs, and the improve-ment in the quality of..
