First Prize Design. Submitted by Antonio DiNardo and W. Frank Hitchens, of Pittsburgh, Pa. Architecture, being a three-dimensional subject, cannot be considered otherwise, and, therefore, it becomes not a question of plan or elevation, but a question of plan and elevation. This design had a well articulated plan which functioned admirably, and an elevation possessing the charm of light and shade and shadow. The porch, both as a practical and as an aesthetic feature, is attractive. Second Prize Design. Submitted by William D. Foster, of New York, N. Y. As between the design placed first and that placed second, there was no great difference in merit. The ample sunlit corridor presents an attractive feature excelled by no competitor. The plan turns the most attractive elevation of the building away from the Village Green. The location of the play rooms and their correlation with the out-of-door play spaces and toilets, the location of the special rooms with respect to the class rooms, are admirable features of this fine open...
