Payroll Certifications MAKING The weekly payrolls are called certified because each payroll is DAVIS-BACON signed and contains language certifying that the information is true and correct. The payroll certification language is on the reverse WORK side of the WH-347. If you are using another type of payroll format you may attach the certification from the back of the WH-347, or any other format which contains the same certification language on the WH-347 (reverse). DOLs website has Payroll Instructions, and the Payroll Form WH-347, in a fillable PDF format at this address: www.dol.gov/esa/programs/dbra/forms.htm and at HUDClips. c. No Work Payrolls No work payrolls may be submitted whenever there is a temporary break in your work on the project, for example, if your firm is not needed on the project right now but you will be returning to the job in a couple of weeks. (See Tip Box, below, for no work payroll exemption !) However, if you know that your firm will not be working on the project for an extended period of If you number your payroll time, you may wish to send a short note to the contract adminis-reports consecutively, trator to let them know about the break in work and to give an you do not need to submit approximate date when your firm will return to the project. If no work payrolls ! you send a note, you do not need to send no...
