Krebs argues that two different images of Eastern Europe's ultimate status competed to guide American policy during this period: Finlandization and rollback. Rollback, championed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Central Intelligence Agency, was synonymous with liberation as the public understood it; detaching Eastern Europe from all aspects of Soviet control. Surprisingly, the figure most often linked to liberation? Secretary of State John Foster Dulles ? came to advocated a more subtle and measure policy that neither accepted the status quo nor pursued rollback." 100% customer satisfaction guaranteed.
